GOD CONFRONTS MAN IN HISTORY
Henry Sloane Coffin

As a presentation of the Christian faith, this work covers the basic Christian convictions with clarity and conciseness. Its stress upon history is an effort to render the Gospel relevant to the situations in which we are now living. $2.50

ON THE MEANING OF CHRIST
John Knox

A fresh, vigorous approach to the significance of Christ for Christian faith. This is the third volume in a series on the meaning of Christ of which the other two are The Man Christ Jesus and Christ the Lord. $2.50

THE PASTORAL EPISTLES
Burton Scott Easton

The New Testament books I and II Timothy and Titus (generally known as the Pastoral Epistles because they deal with the duties of a minister in caring for his people) have long required a new and original commentary of this sort for non-technical readers. $3.00

THE INVISIBLE ENCOUNTER
Igor I. Sikorsky

A prominent scientist and inventor, who has already written on the Christian faith in The Message of the Lord's Prayer, is the author of this moving plea for a present-day re-dedication to spiritual values. His argument is based on a searching study of the temptations of Jesus. $2.00

PAUL'S EPISTLE TO THE ROMANS
E. F. Scott, D.D.

The Epistle to the Romans for all its wrappings of ancient thought and language, is essentially a modern book, and has a message for our world today. Dr. Scott fixes our attention on the heart of the Apostle's thought and its practical bearing upon life. $2.00

THE PERSON AND THE COMMON GOOD
Jacques Maritain

A new book by the famous Catholic scholar and theologian who is recognized as one of the most influential figures in contemporary philosophy. $2.00
